MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT
(Picture Book)

Good Morning Bunny.
How did you sleep?

Come play with me,
Bear, Doggy and Sheep.

After our breakfast we can go out and play.

Mommy's made us yummy
oatmeal today.

It's sunny outside,
we can play in the pool.

Bear likes to splash,
but Doggy thinks it's too cool.

"Lunch time" says Mommy,
"I've made you a treat."

We all hurry in,
but Bear's in my seat.

Move over Bear,
I want to eat too.

Mommy made us
her homemade stew.

Nappy time everybody,
Bunny's starting to yawn real big.

We all jump in bed,
me, Bear, Doggy, Sheep and now Pig.

I'm not sleepy, Mommy,
no nappy time today.

"Just a little rest" says Mommy,
"a little break from your hard play."

Nappy time was a success,
we were all able to sleep.

Time to get up now, me
Bear, Puppy, Pig and you too Sheep.

How about a walk?
Mommy said she would take the wagon.

Everybody can fit in,
except for Puppy whose tail seems to be drag'n.

What's the matter Puppy?
You look a little down.

You can stay here,
and take care of that frown.

"Snack time" says Mommy,
"cheesy fishes to eat."

A little for everyone.
I think fishes are our favorite treat.

Now lets play cars,
Bear and Pig inside.

While Sheep and I push,
and watch them glide.

"Daddy's home" says Mommy.
Daddy gives me a hug.

And one for Bear, Puppy, Sheep and Pig,
as I give Daddy a tug.

"Supper time" says Daddy.
"We're having your very best."

With all my animals around me,
Daddy says I look like I'm in a nest.

A little more time to play,
then it's off to bed.

Bear, Puppy, Sheep and Pig
all run ahead.

As Mommy and Daddy tucks us all in
for the night, they recite,

“Night night, sleep tight
See you in the morning light.”
